in partnership with the Embassy of the People’s Republic of China, the Department of Culture and Tourism of Guangdong Province, and the Administration of Culture, Radio, Film, Television, Press and Publication of Guangzhou Municipality.

CHINESE NEW YEAR CELEBRATION

Tuesday, February 5, 2019

MARYLAND HALL
art for all
Maryland Hall for the Creative Arts
801 Chase Street, Annapolis, Maryland

To celebrate the Chinese New Year of the Pig.
The festival is for all ages! Featuring Artists from China.

5:30–6:45: Interactive demonstrations will include Cantonese opera costumes, lion costumes, lion puppets, and Rose Medallion painting.

6:45: A film on the Chinese New Year will be featured.

7:00: Performances of acrobatics, dance, and Cantonese music.

Free Admission
Donations appreciated

This program is made possible in cooperation with Maryland Hall for the Creative Arts.
(Note: Maryland Hall closes if schools are closed due to weather. Check the website, watch for emails from WAE, listen to the radio, check facebook for final announcement.)

WAE
15 Years of Bridging People and Cultures
For information: wae@comcast.net, www.worldartists.org or FACEBOOK